

Golf simulator update

The golf simulator located in the basement of the Pro Shop has had an increase in usage this year when compared to the past couple of seasons. I hope that everyone who has used it has enjoyed their experience. I would like to remind everyone that since the basement is not staffed, it would be greatly appreciated if each member could leave the area cleaned up for the next member to use.

The pictures below were taken last week by a member when they arrived to use the simulator. In addition, we are in the process of ordering a new white screen since the current one now has a hole in it. Once we receive the new screen, we will replace it immediately. Thank you for your cooperation and I hope that you enjoy using the simulator for the next couple months before we are back outside on the driving range in April.

Your fitting survey

The most difficult club

We'd like you to give us 3 minutes of your time to complete a survey that will allow us to provide you with a better and more personal service. With your individual responses, we get a much better idea of how we can help you. This is a win-win survey.

The fairway wood reveals all flaws. Its combination of: shaft that's nearly as long as the driver shaft; a face not nearly as big as a driver face; and usually for use without the advantage of a "tee"; make this a very difficult to use club.

Technique, head design, and fitting can either make this a tremendous club to carry and use; or a club not worth its weight in the bag. Where are you when it comes to your fairway woods?

Fill in your survey

That's why we'd like you to complete the survey. The responses can change your result on any hole: a great recovery club and a great club to set up an unexpected opportunity.

Adding speed

The 1, 2, 4 rule

Contact us now >

Last week we told you that just one extra mph with your driver's clubhead speed at impact, will probably translate into two extra mph of ball speed, and four extra yards of distance. That means that adding just five extra mph – if you're over 45 then you've probably lost that in the last decade – gets you from here to there.

There are multiple ways to generate that extra five mph. Why not invest in them all.

Technology

The last few months have been all about speed when it comes to equipment innovation. Making it easier to swing faster and making faster faces.

Technique

Getting the club on a good swing plane and path will allow you to release the clubhead through the ball. That, for most, will already add five mph and more of clubhead speed.

Power

Especially if you're over 35, you should be investing in improving your muscle mass. Combine strength work with speed work in the gym. It's great for you and your golf.

Plan to add speed in 2019

Every one of you can invest a little in each of those three areas. If you do, then I'd be surprised if most of you aren't adding 30 and 40 yards plus to your tee shots.
