Our awesome juniors

RNGA students well represented for Annual Louisiana Junior Cup

The LA Junior Cup is an annual matchplay event with the best players from West Louisiana playing those from East Louisiana. It was held this past weekend at Southern Trace in Shreveport.

Although the Westside got the win in a close match, Rob Noel players showed up in a big way!

Junior Cup rookies Sarah Meral, Blair McKenzie, Owen Hayden, and Quinn Garcia played spectacularly, all scoring points and proved that they would be there for years to come. While Junior Cup Veterans Trey Morse, Ryan Dupuee, and Reese Drezins also played solidly as well as providing leadership to the new players.

Looking forward to next year!

Testimonial Tuesday

"A terrific learning experience, can hardly wait until next week to continue in a positive direction. Each of the 3 steps of my evaluation were on time and concise. I like the idea of take home exercises (drills) to speed up the process of developing better golf swing." ~ Aaron McKenna

The direction of technology

Materials open up your opportunity

Adjustable drivers, while being main-stream, have until now come along with some compromises, especially with forgiveness.

By using weight strategically, designers have been able to extend the size of the hitting zone.

The leading 2018 drivers not only protect ball speed away from the sweet spot, they protect the launch conditions.

That means, despite a slightly off-centre ball strike, you still get the length of ball flight and distance you expected.

Originally, the weight required for adjustable hosels reduced the amount of weight available to the club designer.

That's not the case anymore. More than enough weight is available to the designer to allow them to develop a driver packed with forgiveness.

The adjustable driver improvement

Now though, new manufacturing processes, new lighter but stronger materials, have provided the designers of adjustable drivers with enough discretionary weight to give you adjustability and forgiveness.

What motivates you?

What are you most looking forward to, as you arrive?

We're trying to gain a better understanding of what's important to our golfers. Last week we had a simple question relating to social golf vs competitive golf. If you missed it and want to answer,
