No more 3-putts

Lag With A Purpose

Not wanting to be too aggressive on the first hole, you left your iron shot 40 feet from the cup, and the first hole isn't the place for a three-putt.

Here's the tip: Most good lag putters don't ascribe to the three-foot circle theory. Good putters try to hit the ball in the hole, not three feet from it.

Think about this: From a long distance, it's easy to leave your putt three feet short of where you want it to stop and, if you miss the three-foot circle by that much, you're six feet from the hole.

Sounds easy right? Contact us for a guided lesson so that we can help you every step of the way.

Could you save 5 shots per round?

Let's get that putter working for you

If you struggle to make enough 6, 8, 10 and 12-foot putts on a flat lie, there's a real possibility that your putter is getting in the way of your fun. If you're struggling, then set up as shown below and try 10x10 foot putts (on a flat surface).

If you're feeling uncomfortable in this setup, or you're still struggling to sink enough straight-forward, flat putts, then try a putter with a shorter shaft. What happens then? You might be very surprised.

Is 35" too long for you? The average shaft length on a putter is 35". That's too long for the majority of golfers. It's longer than the average putter length on the PGA Tour. Can you get into a posture that allows you to setup correctly and deliver the putter face square at impact with 35"?

Get a check-up

Improving your ability to square the putter face at impact will take up to 5 shots off your scorecard. There are some simple keys to that improvement.

Set up and putter are part of that equation. So come and see us.

The Srixon Z 585: Distance and feel

A compact look. A great sound. A soft, buttery feel. But the Srixon Z 585 is an iron we'd recommend for golfers looking for improved consistency and distance.

Better is more enjoyment. Better is more excitement. Better is more rewarding. Better is a look of surprise on your playing partner's face. Better is a challenge faced and an accomplishment made.

Start a journey

Golf is even more fun when it's a journey somewhere. It's more than playing. It's about growing and improving and mastering a new skill. Speak to us about our 'Play Nine Together' or 'Personal Assessment' and we'll show you a pathway to better.
