

One week to go..

The 2019 Ryder Cup

The 9th annual CCL Ryder Cup is only a week away! For this event, we split the field into two teams. As long as you continually play from year to year you stay on the same team. Needless to say the rivalry between the Red Team and the Blue Team is very strong. Last year the Blue Team pulled out a victory in a rain-shortened event.

If you haven't already signed up for this event please do, because you will not regret it. Below is a listing of what to expect for the weekend and we will follow up with more information on the teams! Let the trash-talking commence and as always...GO BLUE!!!

Take a look at the pre-match interviews from the captains for the 2018 event.

The new Callaway Epic Forged Iron

CONFIDENCE TO ATTACK THE FLAG

Standing over a tough approach becomes easier, and more enjoyable, when you have lots of confidence.

Callaway have added game improvement tech to their new Epic Forged Iron that is going to give you that added confidence. And they've packed it into a sleek profile.

A FIRST FOR FORGED

Forged irons give good ball strikers added control over flight shape and distance. Mid- to high-handicappers can now tap into that control, too.

The Epic Forged has a Tungsten weight suspended in urethane microspheres, allowing Callaway to position the CoG precisely for each iron. This increases the MOI across the set, giving you easier launch on all your iron shots.

ATTACK THE FLAG.

When you're out on the range try to hit more than just distance markers and greens. Go for the flag.

Every golfer is unique

But every golfer wants confidence.
Let's set you up to take on any approach shot.
