Inject more joy into your game

How heartbreaking for Lizette Salas at the British Women's Open. She came to the 18th green with 5' to nail a birdie and a chance to finish 18 under. The ball stayed up leaving her on 17 under. The young, very young, Hinako Shibuno, came to the 18th green 20 minutes later at 17 under. Faced with an 18-footer for birdie, it was never coming up short. In fact, if it had missed the back of the hole it might well have gone a good seven feet past. But it didn't, and with that birdie Shibuno won the first tournament she'd ever played outside of Japan and a Major at that.
