9-Hole playing sessions

If you have an hour and three clubs, you can go to the Driving Range and hit a bucket of balls until you feel better.
But will your game have improved at all?

Most likely not!

Why not?

Here are a few reasons:

- 1) You are hitting the same club again and again.
- 2) You are aiming for the same target every time.
- 3) You are doing what's comfortable.
- 4) Chances are you are doing something incorrectly. But you are practicing the same incorrect movement again and again.

On the golf course, every shot counts.

Every shot has a consequence.

If you don't face new problems, you will never learn.

Have you ever been on the golf course with a Certified Golf Coach to see where your game is one shot at a time?

Let's set up a 9-hole playing and coaching session.

You will play better, shoot lower scores and have more fun.
