Captain's News

Dear members

Wow, what a week it was for us as a club. We had beautiful rain that filled our dams quicker than anyone anticipated, and with some more rain predicted we can all look forward to the sight of penalty areas full of water, and for some (as for me) that inevitable magnet effect that has on a golf ball's flight.

We also hosted an SGM this week to decide on the way forward for the clubhouse - and in specific the downstairs area and the lockers. A big thank you to all members that took the time to attend. We haven't seen this great attendance to a meeting since being on the committee, and this just shows the commitment of our members for the wellbeing of their club.

Wonderful robust debate was held over the issue, and a vote was passed that we go ahead with the upgrade. For many, none less than Andre Wainwright and Tobie de Jonge, this has been a vision for years that will now be made a reality. Thank you sincerely to all that contributed in the research, and we are all looking forward in anticipation to the completed product - one that will surely cement the Jewel of the North as one of the Cape's favourite golfing destinations.

There is obviously some serious shuffling to be done, as the builders will start on the 1st of August and need access to most of the downstairs area.

The duration of the build is estimated at three months. The lady's locker room would be accessible, as the builders will "drywall" that access. We will alternate the use of their showers as the need arises and these would be communicated with members as they arrive. The Pro Shop and registration will move upstairs, to the current committee room, so members will be directed here to register their rounds. All F&B services will also move upstairs, so halfway-house would be upstairs for the duration of the build.

Alfie and his team will however attempt in weather permitting days to serve a limited food and bar offering downstairs.

The builders obviously also need a building site, and we have allocated the area to the left of the car park on the area not tarred and close to the entrance to the grounds from the left. Therefore, access would only happen to the right, past the putting green.

We do apologise for the inconvenience caused throughout the duration of the build, please be sure that we will try our level best to minimize the impact on our members as well as our visitors. As I have said Tuesday evening, no change ever really comes without sacrifice, but the prospect of our upgraded facility makes me very excited and will be worth the inconvenience. Onwards and Upwards for our Jewel!

And remember:

Course News

Click here for the July Course Report.

PLEASE NOTE: New penalty area right of 3rd pole

Penalty area between 3rd fairway and 9th hole

The Committee had a look at the area to the right of the 3rd fairway with the view of marking the whole area as a penalty area as allowed now under the new Rules of Golf. Currently, there are many occasions where players, after hitting drives over/into the trees, cannot really ascertain whether their balls are in the sloot or possibly lost.

Now, by marking the whole area (see drawing) as a red penalty area, a player can be virtually certain that his/her ball is inside the area (even if the ball is not found) and can quickly proceed under the relief options offered by Rule 17.1d. Red stakes have been placed in position and a player will be able to see where the edges are and where a lateral penalty drop may be taken.

Remember, a player will have the following options once a ball has entered the penalty area:

If you find the ball within 3 minutes anywhere inside the area: The ball may be played as it lies, loose impediments may be removed (as long as ball is not moved), player may ground the club and even take practice swings (thus same situation as if ball is on the fairway or rough).

However, you may not do the following if your ball is inside a penalty area:

- NO RELIEF FROM ABNORMAL COURSE CONDITIONS (cannot drop for say a mole-hill)
- CANNOT TAKE RELIEF FOR AN EMBEDDED BALL
- PLAYER CANNOT DEEM BALL UNPLAYABLE UNDER R19 AND TAKE DROP.

If you do not find your ball or your found ball cannot be played, you must proceed under penalty of 1 shot by using any one of the relief options described in Rule 17.1d:

- Go play a ball again from previous spot where a stroke was made (stroke and distance)
- Go back on line as far as you want by keeping the spot where the ball last crossed the penalty area and the flagstick in line
- Measure out the 2 club lengths relief area from the spot where ball last crossed the edge of the penalty area (lateral relief) There is no opposite side relief anymore – you can only take lateral relief from the spot, and thus side, where ball last crossed the edge into the penalty area.

The terrain around the penalty area is such that, if you seek your ball and cannot find it outside the penalty area, it will be virtually certain that your ball is inside the penalty area. You can thus proceed quickly with your selected relief procedure.

The full wording of Rule 17 governing a penalty area, is the following:

Rule 17.1d: Relief for a ball that is known or virtually certain to be in a penalty area:

- (1) Stroke-and-Distance Relief. The player may play the original ball or another ball from where the previous stroke was made (see Rule 14.6).
 - (2) Back-On-the-Line Relief. The player may drop the original ball or another ball (see Rule 14.3) in a relief area that is based on a reference line going straight back from the hole through the estimated point where the original ball last crossed the edge of the penalty area:
 - Reference Point: A point on the course chosen by the player that is on the reference line and is farther from the hole than the estimated point (with no limit on how far back on the line):
 - In choosing this reference point, the player should indicate the point by using an object (such as a tee).
 - If the player drops the ball without having chosen this point, the reference point is treated as being the point on the line that is the same distance from the hole as where the dropped ball first touched the ground.
- Size of Relief Area Measured from Reference Point: One club-length, but with these limits:

• Limits on Location of Relief Area:

- Must not be nearer the hole than the reference point, and
- May be in any area of the course except the same penalty area, but
- If more than one area of the course is located within one club-length of the reference point, the ball must come to rest in the relief area in the same area of the course that the ball first touched when dropped in the relief area.

(3) Lateral Relief (Only for Red Penalty Area). When the ball last crossed the edge of a red penalty area, the player may drop the original ball or another ball in this lateral relief area (see Rule 14.3):

• Reference Point: The estimated point where the original ball last crossed the edge of the red penalty area.

• Size of Relief Area Measured from Reference Point: Two club-lengths, but with these limits:

• Limits on Location of Relief Area:

- Must not be nearer the hole than the reference point, and
- May be in any area of the course except the same penalty area, but
- If more than one area of the course is located within two club-lengths of the reference point, the ball must come to rest in the relief area in the same area of the course that the ball first touched when dropped in the relief area.

Spin: friend or foe?

This is a bigger deal than many think

A colleague of ours recently picked five golfers at random in his club. Three men and two women of differing ages. He spent 20 minutes with each one and their driver (along with alternative configurations).

Changing the spin rate with the same swing speed has a huge impact on the distance the ball travels. Too much backspin for the ball speed and the ball will have too much lift and balloon. Too little spin and the ball doesn't have enough lift and dies quickly. (Read The Magnus effect and Bernoulli's principle if you want more physics).

The laws of physics (proven with the data from hundreds of thousands of golf swings) means that those with slower swing speeds generally benefit from a higher launch angle and more spin, than someone with more aggressive swing speeds.

Matching swing speed, ball speed, launch angle, and spin rate on tee shots, will make upwards of 40 metres of difference for some golfers. How much difference would it make to you?

Don't let spin rob you

Book an assessment with us and let's find your personal launch DNA: the perfect match of launch and spin for the ball speed you're creating.

Who is XXIO for?

It's time to do something

What is happening to our children?

Right now, we have a younger generation who are expected to LOSE 5 years of expected life because of childhood obesity, poor nutrition and activity, and the rise of type-2 diabetes and coronary disease. Golf can help reverse this trend.

We need children to become more active. Of course, they need to participate in more than one activity, but golf should be one of the activities. It has everything for a child.

 <https://crown-golf.co.uk>

Start your child now

With young children we're not thinking about creating Tour superstars, we're trying to introduce them to a past-time that will offer them the chance to live an active and social lifestyle that will make them healthier for their whole life. It's time to do something.
