Center of Gravity (CoG) matters

It's why an assessment and fitting matters

If two drivers with exactly the same loft and shaft can have a difference of 20 plus yards in how far you hit the ball off the tee, then there's one irrefutable conclusion.

What you should be buying is yards, NOT a driver. Yes, every time you're buying a driver, we should be helping you to find the configuration that maximizes your ball speed and then matches that to an angle of launch and spin rate on the ball to get you the biggest distance improvement without you losing control.

Matching swing speed, ball speed, launch angle, and spin rate on tee shots, will make upwards of 40 yards of difference for some golfers. How much difference would it make to you?

Come and grab some yards

Get every yard off the tee your potential deserves. Come and have a tee shot assessment, and let's see how we can add 20, 30, and even more yards to your tee shots.

What matters most to you?

Of course everything is IMPORTANT

We asked you to rate 1 to 3, what's most important to you when you arrive at a golf club. That's a very different question to surveys that ask you to rate experiences, facilities, and reviews, after your round.

From this list, when you arrive at the entrance to a golf club ready to play 18 holes, what are the first, second, and third most important priorities to you?

- Great weather.
 - Being greeted by name and feeling looked after by the course staff.
 - Having more good shots & less bad shots than usual.
 - Pristine course conditions.
 - Nothing going wrong throughout the day.
 - Having the round take less than 4.5 hours.
 - Shoot your lowest score ever.
 - Feeling like a respected and valued member of the club.
 - Having fun with friends.
 - Club facilities are neat, orderly and the service is good.
 - Meeting new people.

Every one of those items is important. It's not that anything can be neglected. But it's quite interesting to think about what is the most important to you and how, whatever your answer is, we can do a better job so that you get more satisfaction.

It's a fun question

If you skipped the link before, then please know that it's quite a thought-provoking question. It's what's most important? A 1 – 2 – 3 question.
