Seniors' Society News

Seniors' Society

In their second match of the season, the Seniors League team gained a very creditable half against a strong Somerset West outfit.

Suat Palanduz and TJ Lee had to fight hard to halve their match to maintain their unbeaten partnership before Mike Rolfe and Gordon Simmons got back to winning ways with a 2 up victory. Deon Minnaar and Neil Rix were outgunned, as were the final pairing of Pieter van Wyk and Jan Horn. It was therefore up to Bob Rees and Bert Vos to ensure their successful partnership continued. With Bob struggling with a stomach virus, Bert played some excellent golf to allow them to keep their noses in front. It was fitting that after both opponents had birdied the final hole, Bert used his final stroke of the game to sink a great five foot putt for the pairing to win the match one up.

The next match is in just two weeks' time on 17 March at Devonvale.

Yours in golf,

Bob Rees

Find your truth

Before you can let the club do the work

We want you to hit better golf shots with every iron in your bag. Besides the design of the head, the next most important aspect is your lie angle. When your lie angle matches your swing, your irons work better for you.
