Starting today and then on every last Thursday of the month, KWV will be sponsoring the Meat Day! Thank you to Dirk Burger and his team for their support of Zwartkop – let's show them our appreciation!

Hole-in-One Challenge

All the Nearest the Pin winners from our December Hole in One Promotion will soon go into a dramatic chip out on the 18th green for a chance to win the Tag Heuer watch, valued at R25 000!

We'll be contacting all the participants shortly and hope you will turn out in your droves to watch them chip-off!

We only had one hole-in-one over the period, by Rossouw Nortje on the 18th December – and because he took part in the Hole-in-One Challenge, he won a 10-year membership to Zwartkop valued at R250 000.00!

This week's heroes...

Repeating his success from last year, Adam Lowther won the GMC's first strokeplay competition of the year. He shot a 69 last Friday and was bogeyfree. Well done Adam!

Elsabe Hefer is our Head Teaching Professional and is in charge of the Golf Management Campus coaching. Why don't you get in touch with her to help you reach your goals – give her a call on 082-922-8408 / elsabe@zwartkopcc.co.za.

Congratulations to Jontey Kotze who won the SADGA's Provincial Day at Copperleaf. He is also one of seven South African players to be selected to play in the Blind World Champs, which will be played at Milnerton in September. Well-done, Jontey!

Jontey is one of the many youngsters coached by Justin Godfrey. While Justin looks after our Junior Section, he is also involved in the Golf Management Campus and does adult coaching. You can get in touch with him on 082-925-0236 / justin@zwartkopcc.co.za

Grip size too thin, you'll get too handsy and close the face.

The shaft is too stiff, and you won't unload the club leaving the face open at impact. Too much flex and the clubface will get ahead, and the face will try to close too quickly.
