Alex the Pro says

Hi,

Think of me next Monday as the sun comes up...

You might still be asleep or just starting your day, however I will be out on the golf course starting The Longest Day Golf Challenge!

And it's all to raise much-needed funds for people affected by cancer.

1 in 2 Australians will be diagnosed with cancer by the age of 85, so to try and change this scary statistic. I will be playing 72 holes from dawn to dusk and I need your support.

Please click on this link and donate to my fundraising page to help support my efforts.

All donations over $2 are tax-deductible and you'll receive a tax receipt via email. And you never know, your donation might just give me the luck I need to hit a hole in one!

Thank you,

Alex

The experience of a lifetime

Eastlake Superintendent Nathan Bradbury, is idolised by his son Ryder and he got the experience of a lifetime on the Saturday of the Australian open. A full behind the scenes look at what goes into setting up a golf course for the national championship. The day started at 4 am on the course and Ryder loved ever minute of it. Some weekends you might see this young man out helping his dad on the course so make sure you say hi.

Comfort goes a long way

Let the 18th hole feel like the first
