Down the drain

Anybody who has played any golf at all has undoubtedly heard the expression, "you drive for show and putt for dough."

Though that does leave a few things out, it's true enough. If there is any one shot that is the most important, it is the final putt on every hole.

After all, it is only after you hole it that you can stop counting. With that in mind, it is important to understand every shot, from tee to green, requires increasingly greater precision as one gets nearer the hole.

To help you achieve that we have the New Odyssey White Hot OG

Putter in store. Odyssey decided to turn back the clock by bringing back the most popular putter insert of all -time in six premium looking White Hot OG Putter heads.

The most important club in your bag will now also be the best looking club in your bag. These putters just hit our shelves at R4299 a putter.

We will be able to set you up to hole more putts and shoot better scores more often. If you feel you need a putter fitting, get in touch and I will arrange with our expert from Callaway to assist you.

Start with an assessment

Be positive about your game

We want to help as many of you as possible have a better playing experience. What would be the improvement that would make the most significant difference? Why not list one or two? But be positive about how you express your goal.

“

I want to cut out 3-Putts.

“

I want to lose my fear of bunkers.

“

I want to fix my slice.

“

I want to be known as a wizard on the greens.

“

I want to be able to get up and down from greenside sand.

I want to hit longer tee shots hitting fairways more often.

The red list on the top is about removing a negative. That's a much less powerful, ongoing motivator, than going positively towards something (as expressed in the blue list below). Even more powerful is connecting that positive thought to an emotional feeling you want to experience.

Think about this now

What would you want to be able to do with your golf game? What would you like to be able to achieve with an improved technique? Why not try and write it down?

HEALTH IS THE NEW WEALTH

If health is the new wealth, golf is your pathway to riches. It's active. It's social. It's safe. It's fun. We'd argue that no other single activity gives you so much.

Get them golfing

Do you know someone who you think would enjoy golf? A relative, friend, or colleague? Let's schedule some time at the club together and start what could be the greatest journey of their life.
