The first 123mds Kyocera Cup was played on Saturday. The format was an Individual Points Stableford throughout the field. We had over 340 members taking part, and we would like to thank everybody for their support. The conditions in the morning were perfect for golf, and the scores did not disappoint. Sean Ledden led from the start, and posted a score of 44 individual points on Bushwillow. He was closely followed by Andrew Stavrou on 41 points on Firethorn, and Colin Steyn on 40 points, also on Bushwillow. The afternoon became a little bit tougher, as the wind started to pick up just after 11am. This made scoring very difficult, and unfortunately the morning score of 44 could not be beaten. Well done Sean on winning the first 123mds Kyocera Cup. Next year will be bigger and better, so we are looking forward to the challenge.

Sean Ledden

Joker Draw

Our AM and PM Joker Draw lucky winners were Bertie Grobbelaar and Derek McGowan respectively. Unfortunately, both gentlemen were unsuccessful, but walked away with R300 credit loaded onto their membership cards. Well done gents!

Bertie Grobbelaar

Derek McGowan

Members are reminded that you can buy your tickets during the week. You just have to be present when the draw takes place. The AM draw will take place after the morning field prize-giving (14h00), and the PM draw will take place after the afternoon field prize-giving (18h00).

Members Representing Central Gauteng in 2021

In 2020, all Inter-provincial tournaments were cancelled due to Covid-19, but 2021 was a new year, and the decision was made that all tournaments will go ahead. It was a big rush and challenge from the CCGU to get all the fixtures finalised, considering we had another lockdown in the middle of the year. With that being said, Randpark members did us proud and the following players represented Central Gauteng this year:

Schalk Naude – Senior IPT

Johan Bredenkamp – Junior IPT

Stefan Jacobs – Junior IPT

Morne Steyn – U13 IPT

Conner Mackenzie – Premier IPT

David Ryan – Mid-AM IPT

Grant Labuschagne – CCGU Quadrangular U15
