Celebrating our BSI youth

Youth Month

As much as Youth month in South Africa has passed, it is very difficult not to continually praise and highlight students in our Junior Academy, so we have rightfully added July as an extra month to shine some acknowledgement and attention on more of our high school golfers.

This week we meet Justin Li, who was born in China and has been in South Africa for only a few years. Last month he shot his personal best of 76.

We also catch up with Tawriq Abrahams who picked up an injury early in the year and was unable to play golf for 7 weeks, but has come back stronger than ever, by beating his personal best twice last month and coming T2 in the BSI 36-hole Championship with a closing round of 69.

Let's hear from our young stars who are both achieving great things.

Justin Li

Coaches help me on my golf game which has improved me. I currently have English tutoring classes. Teachers and tutors have supported me a lot and it is a great environment to be around.

I am able to spend enough time focusing on my golf. My confidence has grown a lot over the time I have been here because my physical ability has improved a lot. As a result, my mental game has also improved a lot.

I have received a lot of support from the people around me and I am really enjoying my time at BSI because I get to play golf every day.

IGCSE

I have grown as a person and as an athlete here at BSI. It is truly amazing how we practise like top athletes. The coaching staff is really good and always willing to help.

My academics are good. I really have a good balance between academics and golf, which I think is really good.

Everyone here at BSI is my family and I really appreciate everyone here. Everyone has helped me to grow as an athlete and more importantly as a person. I am having fun and looking forward to the rest of the year.

Speaking about the partnership, Joe Hunt, International Projects Manager at Wolves had this to say:

"We are delighted to announce our partnership with Balderstone Sports Institute in Johannesburg, South Africa. Over the next few years we will be supporting BSI with football coaching activities in Johannesburg, but also opening the door for them to come to the UK and experience a professional academy environment. We are excited to be coming to South Africa later in the year to coach young players and continue our coach education with the staff at BSI Football Academy."

Welcome to the Pack BSI!"

Wolves have had previous success with international camps in USA and Australia, and BSI Football Academy is delighted to be able to now bring this experience to South Africa to upskill our local talent.

BSI Football's Technical Director, Zeca Marques, added:

"The Wolves partnership is a vote of confidence for our Academy, and it gives enormous satisfaction to be associated with a dynamic and progressive English Premier League football club. The road to success is education, and this initiative is about sharing knowledge and expertise which will allow us to access the latest trends in youth development and accelerate the development of our students."

In an amazing twist of fate, one of BSI's current U17 players is the grandson of Cliff Durandt, who played for Wolves in the 1950s and won the league with them. With this new partnership we could see more South Africans making that same journey.
