Procter wins Kuilsrivier Open with playoff victory

Perfect weather and a well-kept course made for an unforgettable golf experience for 54 golfers.

In a dramatic finish, Travis Procter (Durbanville) won the Kuilsrivier Open by sinking a 20-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole to beat Calvin Kruger (De Zalze).

Both Procter and Kruger carded impressive scores of 69 (-3) to finish one shot clear of Joshua Wiese (Durbanville), Hilmi Mallick (Rondebosch) and Jack Buchanan (Milnerton), who each carded 70 (-2).

Kuilsrivier members, Rowan Jacobs and Colin Smith dominated the Mid-Am Division, putting on an impressive display of golf, and securing podium finishes. As a result, Jacobs placed second in the Mid-Am Gross Division with a score of 71 (-1), while Smith won the Nett Mid-Am Division with a score of 72.

With her dominance continuing, Tara Niewoudt (Bellville) gave clear indications as to why WP Golf selected her to represent them at the 72 Hole Championship held at Mombela Golf Club last month. Niewoudt won the Women's Open Division with a score of 74 (+2).

While Isabella Crawford (Strand) made a valiant effort to stay in touch with Tara, the up-and-coming star finished in second place with 78 (+6).

Royal Cape Open: Durbanville dominates!

The 2022 Royal Cape Open features a star-studded field. A total of 86 players took part in what is one of the most prestigious tournaments on the Western Province golf calendar.

Weather conditions were the main topic of the day, especially the fierce winds from the northwest, which caused havoc reaching gusts of up to 45 km/h. This made scoring extremely difficult, especially down the home stretch of holes 16,17, and 18.

The Royal Cape Golf Club, founded in 1885, presented golfers with an ideal golfing experience with pristine course conditions, and greens measuring up to 12 on the stimp meter. Thus, the one with the most strategically devised game plan and the most proficient short game had the highest chance of winning the tournament.

Open Section:

Amidst extreme weather conditions, Tyron Snyders (Durbanville) stood out from the competition by putting together two impressive rounds of 72 and 71 in order to lift one of the oldest Club Open trophies in South Africa, six shots ahead of his competitors.

Travis Proctor (Durbanville), who has been on fire lately, came up against a few challenges down the stretch, which prevented him from keeping up his hot streak. Proctor carded rounds of 74 and 75.

Cooper (Clovelly), who won the Milnerton Open earlier in the year, shot rounds of 75 and 74, but unforced errors resulted in bogeys on holes 17 and 18 in round 1 and 2, which prevented him from lifting his second Open Trophy of the season.

A triple bogey on hole 16 in the first round, and four bogeys in his last seven holes in the second round, saw Aran Sinclair lose all hope of securing his first-ever Open victory. Despite his efforts, Aran carded rounds of 73 and 76.

Women Section:

The Durbanville duo turns heads. One stroke made all the difference!

Jordan Rothman (Durbanville) carded an impressive round of 72 in the first round after making birdies on holes 4, 5, 7 and 10. Unfortunately, she could not sustain that momentum in the afternoon and settled for a round of 79, good enough for victory by one shot over Kaylah Williams (Durbanville) who carded rounds of 78 and 76.

Mid-AM Section:

Phil Taberer (Erinvale) cards rounds of 75 and 75, showing consistency throughout the day, but suffers defeat on holes 15, 16, 17 and 18. On the last four holes of both rounds, he was 6 over for the day. Elton James (Westlake) finished second behind Taberer with scores of 77 and 74.

Senior Series

Belville Senior Open: Craig Poulton en route to victory in the 'valley'

Craig Poulton (KD Mowbray) captured the Bellville Senior Open in dazzling fashion, making birdies on holes 4, 7, 9, 12, 16, 17 and 18. It was a smooth ride to a 5 shot win.

Poulton racked up a rare feat of capturing four two clubs, birding all par 3 holes. Greg Woodbridge (Atlantic Beach Links) finished in second place. Woodbridge, who recently won the Southern Cape Senior Open and WP Senior Open, carded a round of 75. This included a birdie on hole 5, and four bogeys on 1,2, 6 and 18.

Brian Mampies (Royal Cape), Duane Fisher (Royal Cape), Hugo Calitz (Durbanville) and Jonathan Bernard (Clovelly) all finished in a tie for third place with a gross score of 76.

Mitch Phigeland

The 7th event in the local 2022 Junior Championship Tour, the Rondebosch Junior Championship, saw yet another champion crowned, 16-year-old Mitch Phigeland (Atlantic Beach). A fine birdie finish on the final two holes saw Mitch home with a 71 from a host of players that were close on his heels.

Mitch has a reputation for steady golf, which he proved again with 3 birdies and 2 bogeys over the 18 holes. To say that the players encountered a perfect day for golf is an understatement. Rondebosch Golf Club was in superb condition, with hardly a breath of wind on the day.

James Boustead (Erinvale), who won last month's junior event at Erinvale, was a close 2nd on 72. Grouped together on 73 was a group of 5 players, namely Gabriel Firer (KD Mowbray), Craig Jacobs (Atlantic Beach), Adam Johnston (KD Mowbray), Andries van der Vyver (Strand), and Pearce Lewin (Steenberg).

Each player had an opportunity to win, but lapses on the course cost them dearly. Gabriel Firer had 6 birdies, but 5 bogeys and a double drop were costly. Craig Jacobs had 2 double drops and a bogey, which offset his 4 birdies. Adam Johnston had 5 birdies, but he also had 4 bogeys and a double drop. These are all valuable course management lessons for these young up-and-coming players.

Other noteworthy results were the B division winner, Zayaan Hendricks (Royal Cape), on gross 85, and the C division victor was Taite Sauls (KD Mowbray) on 42 points. The U13s was a runaway win for 12-year-old Vincent Venter on 77 gross, while the U13B winner was 10-year-old Nico Grove (Parow) on 38 points.

The next WP Junior Golf event is the Somerset West Junior Championship on Friday the 17th of June.

Qualifiers thus far for the WP Junior Golf 2022 Championship Tour Final are as follows, namely:

Jack Buchanan	Parow (74)
Craig Jacobs	Kuils River (69)
Jan Stals van Rooyen	Bellville (73)
Jungwi Lee	King David Mowbray (71)
Pearce Lewin	Durbanville (65)
James Boustead	Erinvale (71)
Mitch Phigeland	Rondebosch (71)

Evan and Henru win tight affair at Clovelly

The second in a series of 4 events, the 2022 Clovelly Junior Winter Series, took place at the scenic Clovelly Country Club. These events are to promote golf amongst the Under 13 and Under 15 age groups.

In the Under 15 age group Henru Walters (Durbanville), starting at the 10th hole with a birdie, finished the 9 with a 2-shot lead over Bjorn Nord (Milnerton) after carding a fine 35. Drops at the 6th and 8th holes still allowed Henru to hold onto a comfortable 2-shot win with his 73. In the runner-up spot was Bjorn on 75, with Nicholas Thompson (Westlake) finishing on 76.

The Under 13 division was, as usual, a tight affair with two shots separating the top 3 – local members Evan Marais (76) and Kaitlyn van de Vyver (77), finishing 1st and 2nd, respectively. Jude Samuels (Royal Cape), who won last month's Junior Series event, made up the top 3 with a 78.

The Under 13B division was won on 36 points by 10-year-old Nico Grove (Parow).
